SMART ride with an IC card

Suica and PASMO are prepaid IC cards that can be used to ride the train or bus, and even for shopping. They're super convenient since you won't have to buy a ticket every time you board. It's also easy to recharge at the station when your balance is running low.

The display language can be changed to English.

Available for purchase at ticket vending machines.

Just recharge to keep using it.

A simple touch at the automatic ticket gate!

Can also be used at stores and beverage vending machines.

The card is valid for 10 years from the first day of use.

Japanese COOL train manners

Do your part to help make using the trains pleasant for everyone.

COOL! Keep quiet on the train.	COOL! Set your mobile phone to vibrate or silent mode and avoid talking on the phone.	COOL! Hold your backpack in front of you.
COOL! Keep rolling luggage by your side at stations and crowded areas.	COOL! Avoid crowding together in one spot when waiting for the train.	COOL! Wait patiently in line.
COOL! Properly secure your luggage when on the escalator.	COOL! Hold on to escalator handrails.	COOL! Don't look at your phone while walking.
COOL! Smoking is prohibited on trains and in stations.
